IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- * No media production courses will count toward the Media Literacy minor.
- * One class from other departments can be taken for the minor with an advisor's approval. The course must meet some of the Media Literacy Minor Program Learning Outcomes:
  - Recognize the impact of technologies on media communication.
  - Deconstruct messages for their meaning, purpose, accuracy, and intent.
  - Analyze the ways media constructs a social reality and the effects on its audiences.
  - Identify how messages are created for social, political, economic, historic, and aesthetic purposes.
  - Apply media theory to the interpretation of messages by diverse audiences.
  - Be conversant in the aesthetic and symbolic language of media.
- * It is strongly recommended that students meet with a Major advisor, a Media Literacy minor advisor, and an ARC advisor every semester.

Course Planning

In consultation with your advisor, list below the courses you plan to take to complete the Media Literacy minor. Include the semester during which coursework will be taken.
